Cruises

Get on board on a river cruise along the Rhine and enjoy the fantastic panorama of the beautiful Rhine valley!

Loreley Tour – Cruise to the legendary rock

The legendary Loreley Rock lies in the middle of the UNESCO World Heritage Site Upper Middle Rhine, which stretches from Koblenz to Bingen. The ideal starting point for an extensive tour by ship through the Middle Rhine Valley and to the Loreley is the romantic little town of Rudesheim. From there you cruise past numerous castles and idyllic villages on both banks of the Rhine. The compact KD timetable between Boppard and Bacharach enables you to do a shorter tour, and whether you are doing a whole day tour or just making a quick visit: every ship stops at the KD landing stage at the foot of the Loreley in St. Goarshausen.

Tours: Start daily at 08:30 h
Landing stage: Mainz Rheingoldhalle
Duration: 13 h round trip, with a 2 h stop at St. Goarshausen (Loreley)
Price: 55,80 Euro
Booking: <https://www.k-d.com/en/cruises/loreley-tour/>

Castles Tour – By ship from castle to castle

The number of castles in the Upper Middle Rhine Valley is unique in the world, and they are the reason why this stretch of river was declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. On board KD you can relax and watch as all these fascinating buildings pass you by. Enjoy the view from the ship of Ehrenbreitstein Fortress and Stolzenfels Castle in Koblenz, the legendary castles Katz and Maus (Cat and Mouse), the medieval Marksburg Castle, which was never destroyed, Schönburg Castle near Oberwesel, the Pfalz in Kaub, or Stahleck Castle in Bacharach. Not a castle, but nevertheless a fascinating sight, is the legendary Loreley Rock.

Tours: Start daily at 08:30 h and arrive back in Mainz at 19:30 h
Landing stage: Mainz Rheingoldhalle
Duration: 13 h round trip
Price: 09,20 – 55,80 Euro (depending on which of the 13 stops you choose as your destination before coming back to Mainz)
Booking: <https://www.k-d.com/en/cruises/castles-tour/>
